Sheriff's Homicide detectives are continuing their investigation into the circumstances surrounding a Deputy-Involved shooting which occurred Saturday, October 09, 2010, on the 1300 Block of Fraser Avenue, East Los Angeles.

Detectives have learned that Operation Safe Streets Bureau Deputies were conducting saturation patrols in the East Los Angeles area in an ongoing effort to curtail gang violence. As two Safe Streets Bureau Deputies patrolled the area, they saw two Individuals looking into several vehicles parked near the area of Union Pacific Boulevard and Atlantic Avenue.

Safe Streets Bureau Deputies initially made contact with both individuals, and while one complied with the lawful orders of the deputies, the second individual (Later identified as David Alexander Perez, Male Hispanic, 20 years old) fled the scene. A brief foot pursuit followed in which Deputies chased Suspect Perez onto the 1300 block of Fraser Avenue, East Los Angeles.

During his attempt to flee, Suspect Perez turned onto a residential driveway and was met by a locked gate at the end of it.

As deputies approached Suspect Perez, he turned to face them while producing a dark-colored semi-automatic pistol. Suspect Perez then pointed the pistol at the deputies.

Fearing for his safety and the safety of his partner, one of the deputies fired one round from his Department issued duty weapon, grazing Suspect Perez. Suspect Perez then dropped the pistol he was holding and was taken into custody. He was subsequently transported to a local hospital where he was treated for his injury. A dark colored semi automatic pistol was recovered at the scene.

During the course of the investigation, detectives have so far determined that the first individual initially detained by the deputies has committed no crime and he is currently cooperating with the investigation.

Suspect Perez was booked at the Inmate Reception Center for Assault with a Deadly Weapon on a Peace Officer. He is being held on $100,000 bail.
